Dear Managing Editor of Pharmacognosy Journal

Hope this email finds you well. I'm getting back to you about our manuscript (PJ_300_18) with title: "The Effect of Noni Fruit Extract (Morinda Citrifolia L.) In Gingivitis Patient" According to your email on 22 April 2018, that told us that our article galley proof is under production then we would like to ask about that. Can you provide us information about when that galley proof would be sent to us? We look forward to hearing any good news from you.

Sincerely yours,
