“How Can Health Data and Technological Innovations Contribute to the Next-generation UHC to Ensure Global Human Security?,” Bangkok, Thailand, 30 January 2018

Dear Dr. Defriman Djafri,

We are pleased to invite you as a panelist to the Prince Mahidol Award Conference 2018 side meeting entitled, “How Can Health Data and Technological Innovations Contribute to the Next-generation UHC to Ensure Global Human Security?” to be held at the Centara Grand & Bangkok Convention Centre at CentralWorld in Bangkok, Thailand on Tuesday, January 30, 2018, 14:00 - 17:30pm.

This side meeting will be co-organized by the Institute for Global Health Policy Research (iGHP), the Bureau of International Health Cooperation, National Center for Global Health and Medicine (NCGM), Japan, and “The Partnership Project for Global Health and Universal Health Coverage (GLO+UHC)” [Thailand Ministry of Public Health (MOPH), National Health Security Office (NHSO), and Japan International Cooperation Agency (JICA)]. Panel discussion will be held with international experts from various sectors who have extensive knowledge and experiences in developing effective and sustainable health care systems using health data and Information and Communication Technology (ICT). The provisional concept note of this side meeting is enclosed for your information.

The necessary costs including airfares, domestic transportation, and accommodation (for up to two nights) will be covered by iGHP. We very much look forward to meeting you at our PMAC side meeting. Should you have any inquiries, please contact Ms. Sangnim Lee, a research fellow at the iGHP at s-lee@it.ncgm.go.jp

Yours sincerely,

Kenji Shibuya, MD, DrPH
